Writing skills practice: A report – writing practice

Exam question

The headmistress of your school would like to invite a famous person to come and give a talk to students.

She has asked you to carry out a survey amongst students and then write a report. She wants suggestions on:

- who to invite
- a present to give them to say thank you for coming to your school.

Write your report in about 180 words.

© The British Council, 2012 The United Kingdom's international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. We are registered in England as a charity.