Subject: English courses

Dear Ms Black,

I am writing in response to the advertisement I saw for your English school in ‘World Teens Today’ magazine. I am interested in doing one of your courses and I would be grateful if you could provide some further information.

Firstly, it says in the advertisement that the courses are two weeks long. Would it be possible to do a three-week course? I would also like to know how much your courses cost exactly.

Secondly, your advert mentions accommodation with host families. Could you tell me if I would be staying on my own with the host family or if there would be other students staying there as well?

Finally, I have a question about the social programme. Would you mind sending me more details about this? I am very keen on sport and I would like to know if there are any sports activities included in the social programme.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Lili Song

Top Tips for writing
1. If you know the name of the person you're writing to, use Mr for a man and Ms for a woman.
2. Start by saying why you are writing or what you are responding to.
3. Use indirect questions such as I would be grateful if you could... to ask for information politely.
4. Use words like Firstly, Secondly and Finally to order your points.
5. Use this standard phrase to finish a formal letter or email.
6. If you’ve begun the email with Dear and the name of the person, finish with Yours sincerely. If you have used Dear Sir or Madam, finish with Yours faithfully.
