- Eronita: That looks scary!
- Ossie: That looks scary!
- Eronita: Who's that? (laughs) Hi guys, it's Eronita here on the Get Into Film channel and right now I'm at Comic-Con trying to figure out what's going on, so I asked for some help.
- Ossie: Hi, I'm Ossie. This is awesome! (looking at people in costume passing by) Ben Kenobi!
- Eronita: Is she a chicken?
- Ossie: Yeah.
- Eronita: I never knew that there was going to be this many people dressed up in so many costumes.
- Ossie: No! (pointing at a group of people) They're all dressed as Transformers. Even the baby! That's really cool. That's really cool.
- Eronita: What are you from?
- Predator: Predator.
- Eronita: Predator? I can't hear anything!
- Soldier: You look very cool.
- Ossie: Thank you, you too.
- Soldier: Can I ... Shall we have a fight now, or something?
- Ossie: Yeah, OK. Yeah, sure, why not? I won ... 'cos Captain America wins every time! Onto the orange carpet ... (in the Marvel area) I'm home! Oh, it's Back to the Future! That is really cool!
- Eronita: This is my kind of car!
- Brain monitor: You're going to go take a seat in the chair and we'll put the brain monitoring headset on so you can see your brain in action, and then you'll watch a few minutes of Up in 3D, and then you'll get to see what your brain looks like while you're watching a film.
- Ossie: That was awesome!
- Eronita: I'm going to be the baddie in Terminator. I'm going to get the highest score! (plays the game)
- Ossie: Nine! No!
- Eronita: Who won?
- Ossie: You! ... I was cooler.
- Eronita: That's a Pokemon, right?
- Ossie: Yeah.
- Eronita: Oh my God, I got that right!

- Syfy man: (watching the video) Oh! And you threw it as well!
- Ossie: That's the end of the day. That was awesome, wasn't it?
- Eronita: Yeah, I could see why people would like that sort of stuff. (at the Jurassic World poster) It's 3D.
