Fast Phrasals
We're thinking of going to the beach on Saturday. Are you up for it?

Sure! Cool!

We need to set off before 10am in case there's traffic.

I'll come over to yours, lazy, and pick you up at 9.30. OK?

Fine. We'll be ready.

Can I do without this? Hmmm. I could do with a new hat...

Look after the car! It's my brother's! Can we leave half of this behind?

Oops! Come on! It's half past ten already...

We should check the shopping list again, to be sure.
I'm a patient man, but I don't think I can put up with the singing much longer...

We'll need to stop at a petrol station soon and fill up the tank.

Don't eat in the car, man! You're messing it up! My brother'll...

Don't worry, man! It's cool! I'll clean it up.

Pull over here! We can walk to a petrol station while the engine cools down.

We're out of petrol and the engine's so hot it's going to blow up. Fantastic.

Oops... lazy, you're going to have to call for help.

I've run out of money. I spent it all on food. Have you got any for petrol?

I've run out of battery. I forgot to charge it up...
The car broke down. We've walked for hours. And we'll need to go back and pick it up tomorrow...

Oh dear! Would you like a cup of tea?

I'll take that as a 'no'.

You're back late! What happened?
