Transcript for Our School students on ... selfies

Courtney: In Year 7 I used to, like, love filters, like, all the time but now I don’t use filters at all.

Leo: If you’re posting a selfie of yourself and it’s a normal selfie, a normal selfie, then that’s fine.

Spencer: See, I’m not really a type of guy to use filters when it comes to my photos or ... My captions are the one.

Lucy: I feel like, you can always think about how you present yourself online, what you post, what you’re posting about.

Dominique: I feel like society has, like, made us, like, think that this is what we’re supposed to look like in a photo, and that this is, like, the pose that we have to put.

Courtney: Or the filters as well ...

Dominique: Yeah.

Courtney: … that make people, like, want to, like, take more photos because ‘Oh, I like this filter because it’s so good, it makes me look ... covers all my spots.’ Like, why can’t you just be yourself and be natural?
